Both the packets should then be placed in a separate packet and marked with the Tender no. and name & address of the purchaser as given in the Instruction to Tenderers.

3.0 Validity:

The submission of any offer connected with these specifications and documents shall constitute an undertaking that the tenderer shall have no cause for and claim, against the purchaser for rejection of the offer. The purchaser shall always be at liberty to reject or accept any offer at his sole discretion and any such action will not be called into question and the tenderer shall have no claim in that regard against the purchaser.

The offer shall be kept valid for acceptance for a minimum period of 120 (One Twenty) days from the date set for opening of tender. Offers shall be deemed to be under consideration immediately after they are opened and until such time the official intimation of award of contract is made by the purchaser to the tenderer. While the offers are under such consideration, tenderers and/or their representatives or other interested parties are advised to refrain from contacting the purchaser by any means. If necessary, the purchaser will obtain clarifications on the offers by requesting for such information from any or all the tenderers, in writing, as may be considered necessary. Tenderers will not be permitted to change the substance of their offers after the offers have been opened.

4.0 Tender Evaluation: The entire process of evaluation of the offers shall be in two stages:

- Stage I: The Technical bid of all the offers that are received within the date and time mentioned herein shall be opened in presence of those tenderers or their authorized representatives who choose to be present at the time of opening of the tender. The Financial bid shall be put in a separate sealed cover signed by the authorized signatory of the purchaser and tenderers. The technical suitability of the tenderers shall be evaluated based on the verification of the document submitted by tenderer with the technical bid. The financial bid of only those tenderers shall be opened who are shortlisted in stage I.

- Stage II: The date and time of opening of the Financial Bid – Part B shall be intimated to the shortlisted Tenderers and shall be opened at such appointed date and time in the presence of those tenderers or their representatives who choose to be present. In addition, the following shall also apply.

a) During tender evaluation, the purchaser may, at its discretion, ask the Tenderer for a clarification of its tender. The request for clarification and response shall be in writing, and no change in the price or substance of the tender shall be permitted in response.

b) The tenders received will be evaluated by the Purchaser to ascertain the lowest acceptable tender in the interest of purchaser, as specified in the specification and tender documents. Evaluation criteria not mentioned herein but mentioned specifically in the technical specifications will be taken into consideration in the evaluation of the offers and shall form part of the instructions.

RATES: The tenderers should quote ex-works rates excluding GST which shall be paid extra by the Purchaser; and the rate of GST, as applicable on the date of opening of tender, should be separately quoted in the tender schedule. The offers with ex-works rates quoted inclusive of GST are likely to be rejected. Freight (Rs. per carton) should be mentioned separately. The rates finalized against this tender shall be valid for a period of 1 year from the date as mentioned in the letter of acceptance.

The Purchaser may waive any minor nonconformity, or irregularity in a bid that does not constitute a material deviation, provided such waiver does not prejudice or affect the relative ranking of any bidder.

Prior to the detailed evaluation, the Purchaser will determine whether each bid is complete, and is substantially responsive to the bidding documents. For purposes of this determination, a substantially responsive bid is one that conforms to all the terms, conditions and specifications of the Tender Documents without material deviations, exceptions, objections, conditionalities, or reservations. A material deviation, exception, objection, conditionality, or reservation is:

- a. One that limits in any substantial way the scope, quality, or performance of the product/material/stores.
- b. One that limits, in any substantial way that is inconsistent with the tender documents, the Purchaser rights or the successful bidders' obligations under the contract; and
- c. One that the acceptance of which would unfairly affect the competitive position of other bidders who have submitted substantially responsive bids.

If a bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the Purchaser and may not subsequently be made responsive by the bidder by correction of the nonconformity. The Purchaser's determination of bid responsiveness will be based on the contents of bid itself and any written clarifications sought by the Purchaser in writing the response to which shall also be in writing and no change in rates shall be permitted in response.

6.0 Tenders are not transferable. The purchaser reserves the right to reject any or all of the tenders in part or full at his sole discretion without assigning any reasons.

7.0 Tenderers are invited to quote their rates in the enclosed schedule in accordance with the above instructions and special conditions of contract.

8.0 Offers send by post should be by 'Registered post'/'Courier' with acknowledgement duly addressed to at the address mentioned hereunder. However District Administration shall not be responsible for any postal delay. All tenders received after the stipulated time and date may summarily be rejected. Offers shall be as per terms and conditions and specifications given in the tender document. No deviation shall be allowed from the specifications, terms and conditions stipulated in the tender documents and tenders containing deviations are liable to be rejected. Each page of the offer should be numbered and signed by the tenderer at the bottom. A reference to the total number of the pages comprising the offer must be made on the top right hand side corner of the first page of the offer.

10.0 The purchaser reserves the right to split quantities among more than one supplier on account of credentials, technical capability, Production capacity, past performance or any other evaluation criteria in order to maintain uninterrupted supplies. The decision of the Purchaser in this regard shall be final and binding upon the bidders and their quoted rates shall remain firm irrespective of the quantities allocated. The tenderers are at liberty to tender for whole or part of the tendered quantity.

11.0 The Tenderers must ensure that the conditions laid down for submission of offers detailed in the preceding paras are completely and correctly fulfilled. Tenders, which are not complete in all respects as stipulated above, may be summarily rejected.

Acceptance of tender: The purchaser reserves the right to reject any or all of the tenders in part or full on his sole discretion without assigning any reasons.

District Administration Does not pledge itself to accept the lowest or any tender and reserves the right of acceptance of the whole or any part of the quantity offered. The decision of District IT Society, Sonipat with regard to allotment of quantity so as to ensure uninterrupted supply of cartons will be final and binding. The tenderers shall supply the whole quantity at the quoted rate.

The acceptance of tender will be communicated by letter of acceptance direct to the tenderer. In case where a counter offer is issued, the unprovisional acceptance of counter offer will result in a validity concluded contract, though formal letter of acceptance may be forwarded to the contractor on a later date.

13.0 Discrepancies:

Should there be any difference or discrepancy in the description of item appearing at more than once, the following order of preference shall be observed:

1. Notice inviting tender
2. Instructions to the bidders
3. Financial bid
4. Technical Criteria
5. Technical Specification

300. Contract

301. This contract is for the supply of the stores of the description, specifications and drawings, and in the quantities set forth in the contract on the date or dates specified therein. Unless otherwise specified, the stores shall be entirely brand new and of the best quality and workmanship to the satisfaction of the Inspecting Officer. The stores shall further be in all respects acceptable to the Inspecting Officer.

302. Any variation or amendment of the contract shall not be binding on the Purchaser unless and until the same is duly endorsed on the contract incorporated in a formal instrument (Rider Agreement) or in exchange of letters and signed by the parties.

303. The failure to exercise or delay in exercising a right or remedy under this Contract shall not constitute a waiver of the right or remedy or a waiver of any other rights or remedies and no single or partial exercise of any right or remedy under this contract shall prevent any further exercise of any right or remedy or the exercise of any other right or remedy. The rights and remedies contained in this agreement are cumulative and exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

304. The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision of this Contract shall not affect or impact the continuation in force of the remainder of this agreement.

305. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture of any kind between the parties or as constituting either party as the agent of the other party for any purpose whatsoever and neither party shall have the authority or power to bind the other party in any way or for any purpose.

306. Each party shall undertake with the other to do all things reasonably within its power which are necessary or desirable to give effect to the spirit and intent of the Contract/ Agreement.

400. Corrupt Practices

Contractor is expected to observe the highest standard of ethics during the execution of this contract. In pursuit of this policy, the Purchaser:

a. Defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:

I. "corrupt practice" means the offering, giving , receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action in the procurement process or in Contract execution; and

II. “fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the purchaser and includes collusive practices among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels and to deprive the purchaser of the benefits of competition;

b. will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder/contractor being considered for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the Contract.

401. Breach of Contract:

Any breach of the terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document by the Contractor, or any one employed by him or acting on his behalf (whether with or without the knowledge of the Contractor) or the committing of any offence by the Contractor or by any one employed by him or acting on his behalf under Chapter IX of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 or the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947 or any other act enacted for the prevention of corruption by public servants shall entitle the Purchaser to cancel the contract and all or any other contracts with the Contractor and to recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss arising from such cancellation in accordance with the provisions of Clause 1100.

402. Any dispute or difference in respect of either the interpretation effect or application of the above condition or of the amount recoverable there under by the Purchaser from the Contractor, shall be decided by the Purchaser, whose decision thereon shall be final and binding on the contractor.

500. Indemnity

The Contractor shall at all times indemnify the Purchaser against all claims which may be made in respect of the stores for infringement of any right protected by patent, registration of designs or trade mark. Provided always that in the event of any claim in respect of alleged breach o patent, registered designs or trade mark being made against the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall notify the Contractor of the same and the Contractor shall, at his own expense, either settle any such dispute or conduct any litigation that may arise there from.

501. Risk in the Stores

The Contractor shall perform the contract in all respects in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. The stores and every constituent part thereof, whether in the possession or control of the Contractor, his agents or servants and the Purchaser, his agents or servants, shall remain in every respect at the risk of the Contractor, until their actual delivery or the consignee at the stipulated place or destination or, where so provided in the acceptance of tender, until their delivery to a person specified in the contract as interim consignee for the purpose of dispatch to the consignee.

600. Security Deposit

601. Unless otherwise agreed between the Purchaser and Contractor, the Contractor shall, after written notices of acceptance of the tender has been posted to the Contractor, deposit with the Corporation (in the form of Demand Draft in favour of “District IT Society, Sonipat” drawn on scheduled commercial bank payable at Sonipat, Haryana) a sum equal to 5 percent of the total value of the stores detailed in the contract for which the tender has been accepted, subject to a maximum of Rs. 8,00,000/- (Rupees Eight lakh only) as a security for the due fulfillment of the contract. No interest will be payable on the Security Deposit.

602. If the Contractor, having been called upon by the Purchaser to furnish security fails to make and to maintain a security deposit within the specified period, it shall be lawful for the Purchaser.

(a) to recover from the Contractor the amount of such security deposit by deducting the amount from the bills of the Contractor of the Contract or pending bills of the Contractor under any other contract with the Purchaser, or

(b) to cancel the contract or any part thereof and to purchase or authorize the purchase of the stores at the risk and cost of the Contactor and in that event the provisions of Clause 1100 (b) shall apply as far as applicable.

603. No claim shall lie against the Purchaser in respect of interest on Security Deposit or depreciation thereof.

604. The Purchaser shall be entitled and it shall be lawful on his part to forfeit the said security deposit in whole or in part in the event of any default, failure or neglect on the part of the Contractor in the fulfillment or performance in all respect of the contract under reference or any other contract with the Purchaser or any part thereof to the satisfaction of the Purchaser and the Purchaser shall also be entitled to deduct from the said deposits any loss or damage which the Purchaser may suffer due to any act or other default, recoverable by the Purchaser from the Contractor in respect of the contract under reference or any other contract and in either of the events aforesaid to call upon the Contractor to maintain the said security deposit at its original limit by making further deposits, provided further that the Purchaser shall be entitled to recover any such claim from any sum then due or which at any time thereafter may become due to the Contractor under this or any other contracts with the Purchaser.

C. Execution of Contract (Delivery, Acceptance and Rejection etc.)

700. The Contractor shall as may be required by the Purchaser either deliver free or FOR or CIF at the place/places detailed in the contract, the quantities of the stores detailed therein and the stores shall be delivered or dispatched not later than the dates specified in the contract. The delivery will not be deemed to be complete until and unless the stores are inspected and accepted by the inspecting officer as provided in the contract.

701. Notwithstanding any inspection and approval by the Inspecting Officer on the Contractor's premises, property in the stores shall not pass on to the Purchaser until the stores have been received, inspected and accepted by the consignee.

702. Consignor's Right of Rejection-Notwithstanding any approval which the Inspecting Officer may have given in respect of the stores or any materials or other particulars or the work or workmanship involved in the performance of the contract (whether with or without any test carried out by the Contractor or the Inspecting Officer or under the direction of the Inspecting officer) and notwithstanding delivery of the stores where so provided to the interim consignee, it shall be lawful for the consignee, on behalf of the Purchaser, to reject the stores or any part, portion or consignments thereof within a reasonable time after actual delivery thereof to him at the place or destination specified in the contract if such stores or part, portion or consignment thereof is not in all respects in conformity with the Terms and conditions of the contract whether on account of any loss, deterioration or damage before dispatch or delivery or during transit or otherwise howsoever.

703. Provided that where, under the terms of the contract the stores are required to be delivered to an interim consignee for the purpose or dispatch to the consignee, the stores shall be at the Purchaser's risk after their delivery to the interim consignee, but nevertheless it shall be lawful for the consignee on behalf of the Purchaser to reject the stores or any part, portion of consignment thereof upon their actual delivery to him at the destination if they are not in all respects in conformity with the terms and conditions of contract except where they have been damaged or have deteriorated in the course of transit or otherwise after their delivery to the interim consignee.

704. No stores shall be deliverable to the consignee's depots on Sundays and public holidays without the written permission of the consignee.

705. Time for and Date of Delivery the Essence of the Contract:

The time and the date specified in the contract or as extended for the delivery of the stores shall be deemed to be of the essence of the contract and delivery must be completed not later than the date(s) so specified or extended. The district administration shall give the last delivery schedule 10 days (distance up to 500 kms from plant), and 15 days (distance more than 500 kms from plant) prior to the expiry date of the contract and the contractor shall ensure the supplies are completed and material delivered at site within delivery period, specified in the contract.

706. The Purchaser shall be entitled at any time to increase the approximate total quantities of each description of stores shown in the said contract by not more than 30 percent and will give reasonable notice in writing of any such increase to the Contractor. The purchaser also reserves the right to stop taking supply of any item of this contract or reduce its quantity to any extent during the currency of this contract without assigning any reasons.

800. Quality & Rejections

801. Each supply should be according to the specification as mentioned in the tender form.

802. As cent percent inspection is not possible or practicable at the time of supply, the contractor shall replace the material at his own cost, defective material if found afterwards physical inspection and testing. If the same are not replaced in the reasonable time, the cost thereof will be recovered from contractors' subsequent bills.

803. Inspection by Purchaser For Quality:

The purchaser shall have the power:

(i) To certify any materials or part thereof of submitted for inspection that they are not in accordance with the contract owing to the adoption of any unsatisfactory method of manufacture.

(ii) To reject any materials submitted as not being in accordance with the particulars.

(iii) to reject the whole of the installment, if after inspection of such portion thereof as he may in his decision think fit, he is satisfied that the same is unsatisfactory.

The inspecting Officer's decision as regards to the rejection shall be final and binding on the contractor

804. The Purchaser reserves the right to inspect the materials to be dispatched / in Transit / already delivered at any time and at anywhere. The purchaser also has rights to inspect the raw materials used for manufacturing, process of manufacturing, quality policy fixed and testing facilities for the product to be supplied by the contractor at the contractor's premises.

805. Cost of Test: The contractor is liable to pay for any Test done on the product supplied for conformity on quality.

806. Consequence of Rejection:

If on the stores being rejected by the Inspecting Officer or interim Consignee or Consignee at the destination, the Contractor fails to make satisfactory supplies within the stipulated period of delivery, the Purchaser shall be at liberty to-

(i) require the contractor to replace the rejected stores forthwith but in any event not later than a period of 21 days from the date of rejection and the contractor shall bear all cost of such replacement including freight, if any, on such replacing and replaced stores but without being entitled to any extra payment on that or any other account, or

(ii) Purchase or authorize the purchase of quantity of the stores rejected or others of a similar description (when stores exactly complying with particulars are not, in the opinion of the Purchaser, which shall be final, readily available). Without notice to the Contractor at his risk and cost and without affecting the Contractor's liability as regards the supply of any further installment due under the contract, or

(iii) Cancel the contract and purchase or authorize the purchase of the stores or others of a similar description (when stores exactly complying with particulars are not, in the opinion of the Purchaser, which shall be final, readily available) at the risk and cost of the Contractor.

In the event of action being taken under Sub-clause (ii) above or under this Sub-clause, the provision of Clause 1100 above will apply as far as applicable.

this Sub-clause, the provision of Clause 1100 above will apply as far as applicable.

(iv) Where under the contract the price payable is fixed for dispatching station, the Contractor shall, if the stores are rejected at destination by the consignee, be liable, in addition to his other liabilities, including refund of price recoverable in respect of the stores so rejected, to reimburse to the Purchaser the freight and all other expenses incurred by the Purchaser in this regard.

807. Removal of Rejected stores:

On rejection of all stores submitted for inspection at a place other than the premises of the Contractor, such stores shall be removed by the Contractor at his own cost subject as hereinafter stipulated, within 21 days of the date of intimation of such rejection. If the concerned communication is addressed and posted to the Contractor at the address mentioned in the contract, it will be deemed to have been served on him at the time when such communication would be in the course or ordinary post reach the Contractor. Provided that the Inspecting Officer may call upon the Contractor to remove dangerous, infected or perishable stores within 48 hours of the receipt of such communication and the decision of the Inspecting Officer in this behalf shall be final in all respects. Provided further that where the price or part thereof has been paid, the consignee is entitled without prejudice to his other rights to retain the rejected stores till the price paid for such stores is refunded by the Contractor save that such retention shall not in any circumstances be deemed to be acceptance of the stores or waiver of rejection thereon.

808. All rejected stores shall in any event and circumstances remain and always be at the risk of the contractor immediately on such rejection. If such stores are not removed by the Contractor within the periods aforementioned, the Inspection Officer may remove the rejected stores and either return the same to the Contractor at his risk and cost by such mode of transport as the Purchaser or Inspecting Officer may decide, or dispose of such stores at the Contractor's risk and retain the sale proceeds.

809. Warranty/Guarantee:

a. The Contractor hereby covenants that it is a condition of the contract that all goods/stores/articles furnished to the Purchaser under this contract shall be of the highest grade, free of all defects and faults and of the best materials, quality, manufacture and workmanship throughout and consistent with the established and generally accepted standards for materials of the type ordered and in full conformity with the contracts specifications, drawing or sample, if any and shall, if operable, operate properly.

b. The Contractor also guarantees that the said goods/stores/articles would continue to conform to the description and quality as aforesaid and this warranty shall survive notwithstanding the fact that the goods/stores/articles may have been inspected, accepted and payment therefore made by the Purchaser.

c. If, the said goods/stores/articles be discovered not to conform to the description and quality aforesaid or have deteriorated, otherwise than by fair wear and tear the decision of the Purchaser in that behalf being final and conclusive that the Purchaser will be entitled to reject the said goods/stores/articles or such portions thereof as may be discovered not to conform to the said description and quality. On such rejection, the goods/stores/articles will be at the Contractors risk. If the Contractor so desires, the rejected goods may be taken over by him or his agents for disposal in such manner as he may deem fit within a period of 21 days from the date of such rejection. At the expiry of the period, no claim whatsoever shall lie against the Purchaser in respect of the said goods/stores/articles, which may be disposed of by the Purchaser in such manner as he thinks fit. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all the provisions in the Standard Conditions of Contract relating to the 'rejection of stores' and 'failure and termination' shall apply.

d. The Contractor shall, replace the goods or such portion thereof as have been rejected by the Purchaser, free of cost, at the ultimate destination, or at the option of the Purchaser, the Contractor shall pay to the Purchaser, the value thereof at the contract price and such other expenditure and damage as may arise by reason of the breach of the conditions herein before specified. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice any other right of the Purchaser in that behalf under this contract or otherwise.

900. Octroi :

The octroi duty should be borne by the contractor.

901. The Purchaser shall be entitled at any time to increase the approximate total quantities of each description of stores shown in the said contract by not more than 30 percent and will give reasonable notice in writing of any such increase to the Contractor.

902. The purchaser also reserves the right to stop taking supply of any item of this contract or reduce its quantity to any extent during the currency of this contract without assigning any reason therefore.

1000. Examination of Drawing, Specifications.-When tenders are called for in accordance with a drawing, specifications or other particulars of the tender to supply in accordance with such drawing, specifications or other particulars shall, be deemed to be an admission on his part that he has fully acquainted himself with the details thereof and, in no circumstances, will any claim on his part which may arise on account of his insufficient examination of the said drawing, specification or sealed pattern be considered.

1001. Mistakes in Drawing.- The Contractor shall be responsible for and shall pay for any alterations for the works due to any discrepancies, errors or omissions in the drawings or other particulars supplied by him whether such drawings or particulars have been approved by the Purchaser or not provided that such discrepancies, errors or omissions be not due to inaccurate information or particulars furnished to the Contractor, on behalf of the Purchaser. If any dimension figure upon a drawing or plan differ from those obtained by scaling the drawing or plan, the dimensions as figured upon the drawing or plan shall be taken as correct.

D. FAILURE AND TERMINATION.

1100. If the Contractor fails to deliver the stores or any installment thereof within the period fixed for such delivery in the contract or as extended or at any time repudiates the contract before the expiry of such period the Purchaser may without prejudice to his other rights

It shall, however, be in the discretion of the purchaser to collect or not the security deposit from the firm/firms on whom the contract is placed at the risk and expense of the defaulted firm.

1101. Force Majeure:

Neither party shall be liable for failure to perform or delay in performing any obligation under this contract if the failure or delay is caused by any circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God , war, civil commotion or industrial dispute. If such delay or failure continues for at least 30 days, the party not subject to force majeure shall be entitled to terminate the contract by notice in writing to the other.

1102. Subletting and Assignment: The Contractor shall not, save with the previous consent in writing of the Purchaser, sublet, transfer or assign the contract or any part thereof or interest

There in benefit or advantage thereof in any manner whatsoever.

1103. In the event of the Contractor's subletting or assigning this contract or any part thereof without such permission, the Purchaser shall be entitled to cancel the contract and to purchase the stores elsewhere on the Contractor's account and the Contractor shall be liable for any loss or damage which the Purchaser may sustain in consequence or arising out of such purpose.

1104. Change in a firm:

(a) Where the Contractor is a partnership firm, a new partner shall not introduced in the firm except with the previous consent in writing of the Purchase, which may be granted only upon execution of a written undertaking by the new partner to perform the contract and accept all liabilities incurred by the firm under the contract prior to the date of such undertaking.

(b) On the death or retirement of any partner of the Contractor firm before complete performance of the contract, the Purchaser may, at his option cancel the contract and in such case the Contractor shall have no claim whatsoever to compensation against the Purchaser.

(c) If the contract is not determined as provided in Sub-clause (b) above notwithstanding the retirement of a partner from the firm he shall continue to be liable under the contract for acts of the firm until a copy of the public notice given by him under Section 32 of the Partnership Act, has been sent by him to the Purchaser by registered post acknowledgment due.

(d) Consequence of breach-Should a partner in the Contractor firm or the Contractor should commit a breach of the conditions of this Clause, it shall be lawful for the Purchaser to cancel the contract and purchase or authorize the purchase of the stores at the risk and cost of the Contractor.

(e) The decision of the Purchaser as to any matter or thing concerning or arising out of this subclause or on any question whether the Contractor or any partner of the Contractor firm has committed a breach of any of the conditions in this sub-clause contained shall be final and binding on the contractor.

1105. Where the contract is terminated due to any default on the part of the Contractor, the Contractor shall pay all transport charges incurred for returning any material up to such destination as may be determined by the Purchaser and the decision of the Purchaser in that behalf shall be final and binding on the Contractor.

1200. Withholding and lien in respect of sums claimed.

Whenever any claim or claims for payment of a sum of money arises out of or under the contract against the Contractor, the Purchaser shall be entitled to withhold and also have a lien to retain such sum or sums in whole or in part from security, if any, deposited by the Contractor and for the purpose aforesaid, the Purchaser shall be entitled to withhold the said cash security deposit or the security, if any, furnished as the case may be and also have a lien over the same pending finalization or adjudication of any such claims. In the event of the security being insufficient to cover the claimed amount or amounts or if no security has been taken from the Contractor, the Purchaser, shall be entitled to withhold and have lien to retain to the extent of the such claimed amount or amounts, from any sum or sums found payable or which at any time thereafter may become payable to the contractor under the same contract or any other contract with the Purchaser pending finalization or adjudication of any such claim.

1201. It is an agreed term of the contract that the sum of money or moneys so withheld or retained under the lien referred to above, by the Purchaser will be kept withheld or retained as such by the Purchase till the claim arising out of or under the contract is determined by the Arbitrator (if the contract is governed by the arbitration clause) or by the competent court.

1202. Lien in respect of Claims in other Contracts-Any sum of money due and payable to the Contractor (including the security deposit returnable to him) under the contract may withhold or retain by way of lien by the Purchaser against any claim of the Purchaser in respect of payment of a sum of money arising out of under any other contract made by the Contractor
